Friday on the News Hour...

Correction: A graphic in the Brooks and Capehart discussion misattributed a quote to Sotomayor. We regret the error.

Friday on the News Hour, newly-elected Pope Leo XIV holds his first Mass in St. Peter's Basilica. The Pope faces the task of addressing the Catholic Church's biggest challenges. Trump's immigration policies heat up as a top advisor suggests the White House could suspend the right to due process. Plus, Putin uses the celebration of the 80th anniversary of the end of World War II over Nazi Germany to strengthen his alliance with China.
